

Table 3 Students' perspectives on lectures and clinical rounds (n = 326)

Lectures	No.	%
Language used in lecture (in both presentations and explanations) (n =294)
Prefer lectures given totally in English	94	32.0
Prefer lectures given in both English and Arabic	100	34.0
Prefer lectures given totally in Arabic	100	34.0
Clinical rounds
Prefer learning patient history-taking in Arabic	168	69.4
During bedside teaching doctors and students should speak in English	178	70.6
Learning medicine in English created a gap in my dealing with patients (n = 170) <sup>a</sup>	105	61.8

<sup>a</sup>Students in their clinical practice years (4th–6th grades).