

Table 2 Examples of expected data collection strategies and sources for a number of key mental health indicators

Level	Indicators (examples)	Data source(s)/ collection methods
National	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Existence of mental health policy and laws• Mental health expenditure• Suicide rate• Civil society and stakeholder involvement	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Physical availability of policy or law• National health accounts• Vital registration system• Periodic survey
District	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Human resources for mental health• Mental health training for primary health-care workers• Availability of mental health services	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health information system• Health information system• Health information system; periodic survey
Facility	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Hospital admissions (total, involuntary)• Follow-up rate (continuity of care)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health information system; facility records• Health information system; facility records
Individual	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Service uptake and use• Social and economic determinants	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Demographic and health survey; integrate items in information systems of other sectors, e.g. housing, education, employment, prisons