

---

Table 3 Suggested syndromic case definition of Zika Virus Infection for use in the Eastern Mediterranean Region

---

- Case: Fever and at least one of the following symptoms: myalgia, joint pain, rash, retro-orbital pain, conjunctivitis, headache and vomiting.
  - Cluster: A cluster of ZIKAV infection is considered as two or more cases meeting the case definition and having plausible epidemiologic link (time, place and contact).
-