

Table 6 Perception of institutional support for health informatics among Jordanian and Palestinian health professionals (n = 579), 2017

Institutional support for health informatics	No.	%
The institution provides a supportive environment for health informatics programmes	425	73.6
The institution has the necessary infrastructure that enables clinicians while using health informatics	387	66.9
The institution is committed to promoting and improving the implementation of health information technology	390	68.3
My organization provides a supportive environment and/or provides the necessary training and resources for the proper use of electronic health systems	334	58.0
My organization has the necessary infrastructure, including staff and financial resources to support electronic health systems.	351	61.0
My organization promotes the use of health computing technology and/or provides sufficient encouragement for the use of electronic health systems	356	61.9