

CORONAVIRUS DISEASE (COVID-19): protecting the vulnerable

Between 01 and 31 May 2021, with support of WHO:

350
health workers trained on surveillance, case management and infection prevention and control

15 743
samples tested for COVID-19

12 600
PCR testing kits distributed to all federal member states

100
sample collection kits distributed

135
samples transported and shipped from inaccessible areas

50 000
facemasks distributed to all federal member states

200
Sets of full PPEs distributed to federal member states

15 743
suspected cases investigated

503 239
households visited by the community health workers (CHWs) for case finding

1 945 388
people reached out by CHWs with risk communication messages

1 840
community health workers deployed for case finding and contact tracing

57
rapid response teams deployed for field investigation and sample collection

128
alerts of COVID-19 investigated

10
isolation centers supported for patient care

38 500
Ag-based test kits distributed for COVID-19 testing in remote locations

12 441
people vaccinated with one dose of vaccine against COVID-19

6 815
people vaccinated with two -dose of vaccine against COVID-19 (fully vaccinated)

Our operational response to COVID-19 is supported by: