

CORONAVIRUS DISEASE (COVID-19): protecting the vulnerable

Between 01 and 30 November 2020, with support of WHO:

96
health workers trained on surveillance, case management and risk communication

423 810
households visited by the community health workers (CHWs) for case finding

19 485
samples tested for COVID-19

2 025 217
people reached out by CHWs with risk communication messages

140
samples transported and shipped from inaccessible areas

3 327
community health workers deployed for case finding and contact tracing

15 000
facemasks distributed to all federal member states

73
rapid response teams deployed for field investigation and sample collection

54
Oxygen concentrators distributed to peripheral health centers

58
alerts of COVID-19 investigated

19 485
suspected cases investigated

15
isolation centers supported for patient care

Our operational response to COVID-19 is supported by: