
WHO Yemen Response 2022

Implemented health interventions

8m

people reached with health aid including

 4.4 m woman  1.9 m children

27,668

children suffering from severe acute malnutrition with medical complications provided with life-saving medical and nutrition care in therapeutic feeding centers.

5.7m

children under 10 protected against polio in three round of vaccination campaigns

11

isolation units rehabilitated and maintained

12

central public health laboratories and 9 national blood transfusion centers supported

2m

children protected against vaccine-preventable diseases

333

District Rapid Response Teams maintained to monitor, investigate and respond to disease outbreaks covering the entire country

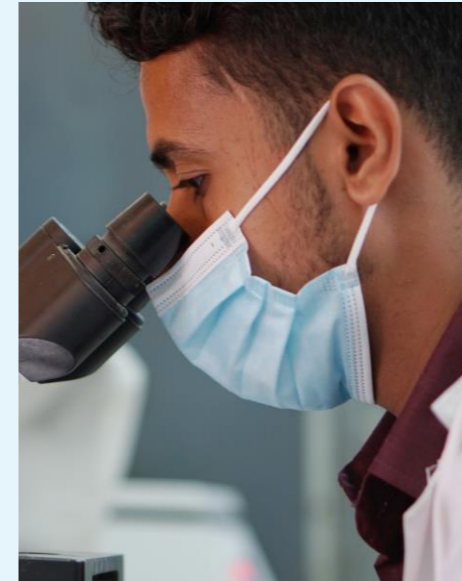

14

medical oxygen stations installed in 14 major referral hospitals in 11 governorates

96

therapeutic feeding centers supported with medical and laboratory supplies, and uninterrupted water, sanitation and hygiene services

8.7m

liters of fuel delivered to 126 health facilities

35

water, sanitation and hygiene systems rehabilitated and maintained

204,050

acutely malnourished children referred for treatment

49

medical waste treatment systems constructed

73

public health facilities hospitals and laboratories rehabilitated and maintained

873,150

children screened for different forms of malnutrition

48,000

internally displaced people reached with outpatient medical consultations through the WHO-led health cluster

5,348

health workers trained in case management and infection control

